Re: Brodsky v. The New York City Campaign Finance Board, on behalf of Zachary W. Carter, Corporation Counsel of the City of New York:
17 CV 3186 (AJN)(JLC)

Dear Judge Cott:

On July 13, 2017, I received a telephone message from Agnetha E. Jacob, Esq. Due to work, I did not receive the message until after business hours and the email at 11:52 PM. Marilyn Richter of the City Law Department requested adjournment from June 15 to July 17, 2017 of which I consented. The request, which you granted, was docketed on June 19, 2017 (#7).

Thirty days have elapsed since the City's previous request. As a non-attorney, pro se plaintiff, I may request leave to amend, Rule 15(a), thus do not request adjournment now. As another adjournment is at the discretion of the Judge, I will agree to answer the defendant accordingly.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter and I am sorry if it has caused Judge Cott any inconvenience.

Yours truly,

Meryl Brodsky
Plaintiff, Pro Se
